

COMIC RELIEF FUNDING INTERNATIONALLY

2014-2015

Between January 2014 and September 2015, Comic Relief allocated £87.8m to 144 projects across three continents. We are one of the UK's biggest independent funders of international development.

Internationally: £87.8m

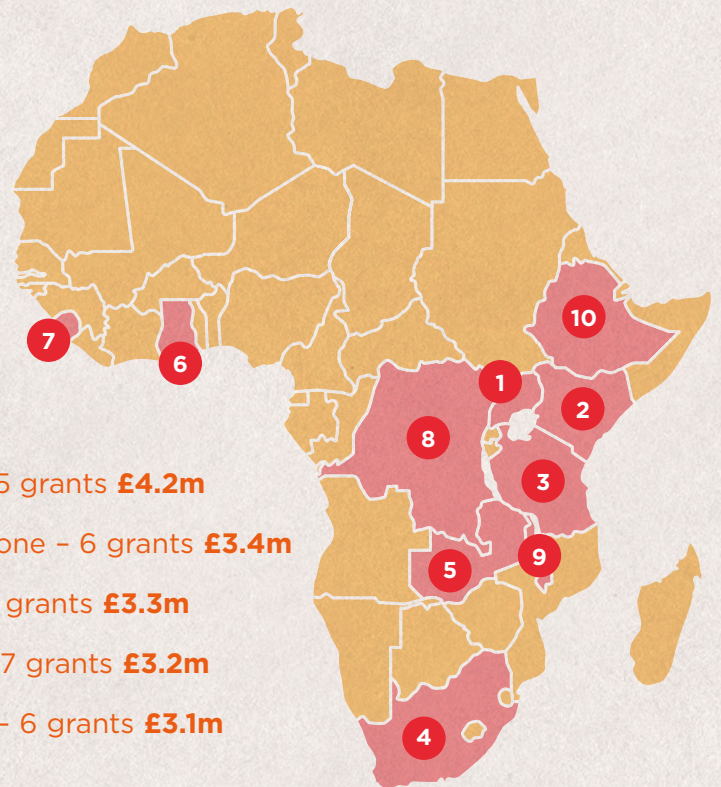

Africa Top Ten

Most of our grants are for long term development, last 3-5 years and are in Sub-Saharan Africa.

Top Ten African countries supported:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Uganda - 22 grants £11.6m | 6 Ghana - 5 grants £4.2m |
| 2 Kenya - 20 grants £8.3m | 7 Sierra Leone - 6 grants £3.4m |
| 3 Tanzania - 8 grants £6.3m | 8 DRC* - 2 grants £3.3m |
| 4 South Africa - 17 grants £5.8m | 9 Malawi - 7 grants £3.2m |
| 5 Zambia - 7 grants £5.5m | 10 Ethiopia - 6 grants £3.1m |

*Democratic Republic of Congo

By issue

Comic Relief supports a range of work across three continents. We fund those with the skills, talent and vision to enable people to turn their lives around and build a better future. Much of our work focuses on helping children into education, enabling the world's poorest people to access health care or working to transform the status of women and girls in Africa so that they can achieve their full potential.

| Issue | Grants | Value |
|-----------------------------------|--------|--------|
| Health | 17 | £28.3m |
| Trade and Enterprise | 22 | £12.3m |
| Education | 23 | £12m |
| Children and Young People at Risk | 34 | £10.4m |
| People living with HIV | 15 | £8.6m |
| Women and Girls | 10 | £7.4m |
| People Living in Urban Slums | 13 | £7.2m |
| Sport for Change | 8 | £1m |
| Emergency Appeals* | 2 | £0.3m |

* Including Philippines typhoon (2014) and Nepal earthquake (2015)

Common Ground Initiative

The CGI programme (co-funded with the Department for International Development) works with the African diaspora in the UK to bring about social and economic change for disadvantaged men, women and children in Africa.

COMMON GROUND
INITIATIVE

20%

of our funding went to support small and diaspora organisations and their partners in Africa

For more information please visit: www.comicrelief.com/how-we-help